

LIBRARY RESOURCES

The library system of the University of Naples Federico II includes Area, Centre, and Departmental libraries, distributed throughout the city of Naples. Its collections comprise over two million volumes and nearly 3,500 journal subscriptions. In addition, the University has established agreements with leading academic publishers (such as Brill, OUP, CUP, Elgar, Hart, among others) and with major digital platforms for accessing legal practice materials and case law databases.